

1918

TALLINNA TEHNIKAÜLIKOOL
TALLINN UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

8th SELF-TEST

True – False

1. Social Factors refer to environmental factors which affect how the person functioning and live.
2. Social indicators are a various set of measures to describe and evaluate social trends in society.
3. The economic models describe only a part of social reality, and this approach is necessarily limited. Economic models had limited relevance for non-economic factors.
4. In sixties and seventies the emphasis began to shift from material to more immaterial aspects of social intercourse. Increase the demand for more than just economic information.
5. An opinion is a subjective statement or thought about an issue or topic. Opinion is the result of emotion or interpretation of facts.
6. The trend within cognitive psychology and social cognition has been increased emphasis on the role of affect.

